

- Home
- Student Enterprises NEW
- On the 2G Trail
- Opinion
- MarketInfo
- Mint Money
- Economy & Politics
- Corporate News
- Budget 2011
- India Agenda
- Business of Life
- Blogs
- Technology
- Marketing & Media
- International News
- Lounge
- Families in Business
- Doing Good
- The Progress Series
- Advertiser Tool Kit

ADVERTISEMENT

First of its kind
1 MINUTE DELAYED
STOCK FEED!

- Reviews
- Mint 50
- Environment
- Book Reviews
- BOL Archives
- Slideshows
- Videos
- Podcasts
- Mint Reports
- Webcast Archive
- Partners
- Wall Street Journal
- Tools

Economy and Politics RSS

Posted: Thu, Jul 14 2011. 5:41 PM IST

Govt need to look into more inclusive growth: Aiyar

Aiyar said there is no 'comfort' in the finance minister saying outlays have increased as it does not necessary translate into outcome

Anuja

New Delhi: Mani Shankar Aiyar, Rajya Sabha member and former union minister of Panchayati Raj, on Thursday said the government needs to look into more inclusive growth to benefit the poor.

0 | 0 | 2
+1 | Like | Tweet

"India along with China were the only two significantly large economies which survived the downturn... Over the future, Indian and Chinese economy are likely to grow and major developing economies are likely to remain stagnant," Aiyar said on the sidelines of a rural governance workshop.

Aiyar said there is no "comfort" in the finance minister saying outlays have increased as it does not necessary translate into outcome.

Tags - Find More Articles On:

Mani Shankar Aiyar | Poor | Growth | India | China

READ MORE ARTICLES BY: Anuja

COMMENTS

DISQUS

Add New Comment

Login

Type your comment here.

Showing 0 comments

Sort by newest first

Mint on Facebook

Like 6,105

Follow @livemint

Related Articles

- Nuke free world still distant, says India
- Aiyar-Kalmadi spat over Commonwealth Games, Congress disapproves
- Mr Aiyar and the rains
- We need to combine Gandhi and Singh

3 IN 1 WINDOW SOLUTION

www.wepmps.com info@wepsol.com
Toll Free 18004254456 Follow Us

Editor's Picks

Views | What the Supreme Court judgement means

Mint's editor deconstructs the Supreme Court order on the 122 2G telecom licenses granted when...

SC quashes 122 telecom licences

The Supreme Court struck down all 122 telecom licences allotted to 11 companies during A. Raja's...

Uninor says it's been 'unfairly treated'

Uninor said in an emailed statement that it...